

Riċerkaturi: Maltese research outreach

Riċerkaturi is a journal of the Department of Maltese, which includes articles based on a selection of B.A. (Hons.) theses in Maltese. The aims of this annual series are threefold:

- The fruitful research and results in these theses are made available to a wider audience;
- Students are stimulated to produce research of quality to be selected for this publication;
- The collection of studies in Maltese is further broadened to contribute to the expansion of technical and academic vocabulary in Maltese.
