Subject: MATSEC Examinations for students certified as 'vulnerable' during the COVID-19 pandemic

Date: 22nd February 2021

Individuals who are certified as vulnerable students by the Public Health Authorities may apply for examination access arrangements for the upcoming session. A filled in copy of the Access Arrangements form, which is also being included with this circular, is to be submitted to MATSEC by Friday 26th February 2021 noon. The form should clearly state the following:

- in the section 'Evidence/Reports', 'Relevant Consultant's Report' should be marked. A copy of this report should be attached to the application form;
- in the section 'School Exam Access Arrangements', under 'Others please specify' – the reason given should be: vulnerable.

The duly filled-in application form must bear the school's stamp. Vulnerable students will be informed with their venue for the examinations. All COVID-19 mitigation measures will be put in place as directed by the Public Health Authorities.

Thank you for your cooperation.
